

House Resolution No. 910

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are continually impressed with the longevity experienced by those citizens who attain the status of centenarian and pause to recognize this tremendous milestone in the life of an esteemed resident of Creekside Residential in Springfield, Missouri; and

Whereas, Chester Norback will commemorate the resplendent occasion of his One Hundredth Birthday with a special celebration on March 30, 2003; and

Whereas, on March 30, 1903, in New Haven, Connecticut, God brought a special gift to George and Louise Norback with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Chester, who would put a twinkle in their eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, an individual who has lived during an era of incredible progress, Chester Norback was born the same year that the first World Series baseball game was played and the Rolls-Royce automobile company was founded in Britain; and

Whereas, while celebrating his birthday, Chester Norback will have the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in his life such as his marriage to Betty and the births of their two children; and

Whereas, Chester Norback has been blessed with the love and affection of a wonderful family whose members include one son, Paul, who is an angel in heaven; one daughter, Joan; seven grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, a retired salesman, Chester Norback has enjoyed many things throughout the course of his long and eventful life, one of which has been playing the piano which he continues to do every day:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and special birthday greetings to Chester Norback at this significant milestone and in wishing him many more golden years of tremendous peace and contentment; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Chester Norback, as a measure of our esteem for him.
